

GADJO BIO

"Yes, I like being lazy. I am not able to tell you when I will release my next single. Let's see what I will do tomorrow." states Gadjo in an interview.

Gadjo is an artist that can really claim to be independent and nonchalant. Even though his productions are rarely, most of them have been burned into our hearts.

Everybody still remembers the most famous amongst them like "Besame Mucho", the latin house bomb and the house classic „So Many Times“.

Gadjo on this topic: "Songs that call up memories in me, are the most awesome ones."

His songs are known all over the planet and everybody can sing at least one of them. Also Gadjo's remixes for different very well known artists found their way into the top ten charts. His last production "It's Alright" just showed us how talented this guy is and what we can still expect from him.

Since success came along, Gadjo is touring the world constantly and rocks the party crowd wherever he plays. While he is doing that, he puts the people into a journey of pure ecstasy.

Gadjo loves DJ-ing, for him there is nothing more beautiful than watching satisfied faces of excited people. He simply is a whole-blood-DJ.

For the next years Gadjo is still going to keep on touring and he will pretty sure be back in the studio to work on some new hot tracks.

It is very nice to see that nowadays an artist is still able to stay an artist who is enjoying his freedom, which you can also feel in his productions and his DJ sets, very clearly.

In every case we can be sure that Gadjo's future is going to be an action packed, glamorous, crazy, party-adventure.
